Huge Havana Rally Aimed Against U.S.

Castro Orders General Shutdown During Noon Hour

HAVANA (AP)—Anti-American feeling mounted in Havana today as Fidel Castro's supporters beat the drums to marshal a million Cubans for a rally protesting "foreign aggression" against the revolutionary regime.

The Cuban Labor Confederation set the stage for the mammoth show of loyalty ordered by the prime minister to support Cuban demands that the United States prevent anti-Castro Cubans in Florida from flying over Cuba dropping leaflets and arms.

More than a million badges reading "against foreign aggression" were prepared for the demonstrators. A general work shutdown was declared for noon in Havana and three neighboring provinces to bring out a huge crowd before the presidential palace.

Blaring sound trucks and the pro-government press and radio kept up the cry against the intruders from abroad.

The government charges that two mystery planes which dropped anti-Castro leaflets on Havana in daylight last Wednesday came from the United States. As the planes flew over the city, hit-and-run gangs sped through the city in cars, throwing bombs and grenades.

Two Cubans were killed and charged that the planes dropped about 50 injured and Castro bombs as well as leaflets. But some witnesses said the casualties resulted from the automobile gangs and from the fire of army personnel shooting wildly at the planes.

Since then individual light planes have slipped through Cuban Air Force Patrols several times to drop anti-Castro leaflets on the capital or its suburbs.

The fiery prime minister has repeatedly denounced the United States for giving refuge to Cuban enemies of his revolutionary regime whom he has branded as war criminals.

A group of 73 professional, civic and religious organizations sent a cable to the U.S. Congress protesting the air activity and urging deportation of Cuban counter-revolutionaries in the United States.

Heavy Snow Hits North Central Area

By The Associated Press

There was a little touch of wintry weather in the north central region today after the season's heaviest snow falls and temperatures near freezing.

Sections of the Southeast, far from the snow belt, were chilled by an invasion of cold air which sent temperatures into the 40s as far south as Georgia and extreme northern Florida.

Torrential rains drenched areas in New England over the weekend, causing landslides, washouts and flash floods.

Heaviest snowfall was in Wisconsin's Rhinelander resort area, with 10 inches at Cranston. The white covering at Marquette, Mich., measured 8 inches.

Light rain and snow fell this morning in parts of the Dakotas and Minnesota and showers sprinkled parts of Iowa, central Illinois and northeast Missouri. Snow measured two inches at Grand Forks, N.D.

Rain fell from lower Michigan and Indiana eastward to the Appalachians while showers sprayed scattered sections of New England.

Nobel Prize Awarded to Americans

STOCKHOLM (AP)—Two American atomic scientists today were awarded the 1959 Nobel physics prize for the discovery of the anti-proton, proving that matter exists in two forms, as particles and anti-particles.

The physics winners are Italian-born Emilio Segre, 54, and Dr. Owen Chamberlain, 39, born in San Francisco. Both are attached to the University of California at Berkeley.

Segre and Chamberlain are the 17th and 18th Americans to win the Nobel physics award. They will divide $42,606.

The Swedish Academy of Sciences, which awards the prizes provided by the inventor of dynamite, the late Alfred Nobel, said the discovery of the American nuclear physicists was one of cosmic implications.

Using the giant atom-smashing bevatron at Berkeley, Calif., they found that by clashing their newly discovered anti-proton and a proton together, both dissolved into light.

The awarding body said the anti-proton—the electrically negative mirror image of the proton, or hydrogen nucleus—had been predicted 30 years ago by Paul Dirac of Britain, who shared the

Governor Speaks At Columbiana Dinner

DiSalle Cites Gains Of Administration

COLUMBIANA — The Democratic administration has nailed down 31 of the 34 planks in its 1958 campaign platform — "a record to be proud of" — Governor Michael V. DiSalle told party constituents at a dinner Saturday night at Dixon School.

Paying particular attention to the welfare and educational programs, the governor told the audience that opposition claims of "extravagant" state programs are easily squelched with facts and figures.

"In a wealthy state like Ohio," he charged, "it is extravagant to borrow money." The chief executive pointed to the high interest rates on bond issues in contrast to the one-cent gasoline tax which he said by itself will raise $29 million.

DiSalle claimed that in the 10-year period from 1948 to 1958 the state of Ohio had expended, over and above its ordinary revenue, $200 million and said the current administration has to make up that money.

He admitted that early in its session the recent Legislature had to do some "unpleasant" things, referring obliquely to tax increases, but charged the action was necessary because of "deficit" financing by the previous administration.

"With the cost of state government increasing," DiSalle continued, "we have to do something to put our financial house in order, to put it on a pay as you go basis."

"We need growth and need it badly. Without men and women at jobs it will be impossible to maintain the state as we would like it. One of the things we have to do is support a reasonable and decent program of growth."

Issue Before Voters on Nov. 3

Green Township Zoning Plan Copies Available

Green township voters interested in the zoning issue which will be on the Nov. 3 ballots are reminded by Chairman Harry Roller that copies of the proposed ordinance may be secured at the fire department office or the township building in Greenford.

Roller is head of a five-man commission which drafted the ordinance last spring. Following local procedure set up by state law, the proposal was offered to the township trustees, who accepted it and placed it on the ballot for this fall's election.

Roller says that any organization which wants further explanation of the proposal should ask for a speaker from the commission or the County Planning Commission. Five public meetings were held in April and May, when the township residents made suggestions and asked questions. A number of changes were made, as a result of these meetings.

The plan is similar to those adopted by Canfield and Beaver townships, although it varies in details, according to Mr. Roller.

Four main classifications or zones are indicated, these being industrial, business, residential and

Soviets Start New Campaign On Disarmament

Russians Claim Measure Would Not Precipitate Crisis

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet publicists have opened a new campaign to convince the West that complete disarmament offers it better economic opportunities than continuance of the arms race.

At the same time Soviet organs make clear that there is no change in the Communist creed that capitalism is doomed whether or not it is shored up by arms production.

This is one of the main themes being beamed abroad and the emphasis on it is likely to increase. Domestically the point hammered home by every possible means is that Premier Nikita Khrushchev wants peace and prosperity.

Not since Stalin's 70th birthday has any event been so publicized as Khrushchev's trip to the United States. Daily mass meetings throughout the Soviet Union praise the Premier for having made the trip which speakers say has convinced the American people of the sincerity of the Soviet desire for peace.

Every issue of every newspaper and magazine stresses the same theme. There is a color film about the trip and a new book, "To Live in Peace and Friendship."

It is against this background that one should read the assurances that the Soviet disarmament proposals are not intended deliberately or by chance to cause an economic upheaval in capitalist countries.

The Literary Gazette this week took issue with Harvard philosopher Robert P. Wolf, who wrote the New York Times that Marx, if alive today, would say "capitalism prospers only on preparations for war whether a war is being carried on or not."

"Marxist-Leninists are very far from thinking that modern capitalism can prosper in any event—with or without the help of military armaments."

Vandals Damage Library Building

Vandals using spray paint cans caused $50 damage to the side entrance of the Salem Public Library Sunday night.

Paint was sprayed over the rear door and the wrought iron railing of the steps. The brick work also was damaged, Librarian James Hafer reported.

Police Chief Martin Lutsch warned parents that they will be held responsible for all acts of vandalism carried out by their children during the Halloween season.

"Children found guilty of destruction of property will spend some time in the detention home at Lisbon," the chief added.

Oct. 30 and 31 have been designated as "trick or treat" nights in Salem by the police chief and Mayor Harold Smith. They ask the cooperation of parents in confining their children's house canvassing to those two nights.

Long Illness Takes W. H. Matthews, 86

William H. Matthews, 86, of 255 N. Union Ave., tax accountant and retired educator and orchardist, died Sunday at 7:07 p.m. in Salem City Hospital. He had been ill of cancer for several years.

Born Oct. 2, 1873 in Mercer County, Pa., he was a son of Henry and Loransa Clark Matthews.

Leaving Pennsylvania at the age of 12, he resided in Kansas two years and Des Moines, Iowa, eight years. He was graduated from Simpson College, Indianola, Iowa, in business administration and also attended Iowa State College.

For a time he served as principal of a grade school in Ames, Iowa, before coming to Salem in 1895 to teach in the Salem Business College. With an enrollment of 150, the local school was one of the largest of its kind in the area at that time.

Ran School for 27 Years
Mr. Matthews bought the school a year later and operated it for 27 years. He also established the Alliance Business College in 1911. It, too, had an enrollment of 150 each year.

Retiring from school work in 1923 Mr. Matthews developed a productive 40-acre apple orchard just north of Salem, which he later turned over to his son, the late Loran J. Matthews.

A life member of the Ohio Horticultural Society, Mr. Matthews served as president of the organization in 1930. He attended Ohio State University each year for about 20 years, taking short horticultural courses of new developments in orcharding. He was a member of the Columbiana County Horticultural Society for 20 years and served as president six years.

He was a staff speaker for the Ohio State University Farmers Institute for eight years and was a special orchard appraiser for the county's 38th. Last year, 55 deaths had been recorded.

In another accident Saturday an auto driver by Donald E. Loos of Canfield went out of control along Rt. 224 at 3:35 a.m. and hit a utility pole.

Patrolmen said that Loos, who was treated for minor injuries at Youngstown Southside hospital apparently fell asleep at the wheel. He was cited for unsafe operation.

Two area persons were killed and five injured in weekend traffic accidents.

Killed were:
Jesse D. Crum, 23, of Wood St., Lake Milton, and Mrs. Alma Clark of 133 Ohio Ave., Louisville.

Crum was pronounced dead on arrival at Youngstown Southside hospital Saturday night after his car, traveling south, went out of control along Rt. 354, at about 11:35 p.m. and tore up about 100 feet of guard rail and struck several trees along the right side of the highway.

Patrolmen of the Canfield barracks said that Crum's 1949 Ford was apparently traveling at a high rate of speed when the accident occurred. Patrolmen said Crum apparently fell asleep at the wheel.

Mrs. Clark was killed when an auto driven by her husband, the Rev. Keith Clark, struck the No. 1 engine of a freight train at a grade crossing 7 miles north of Canton on the Mt. Union-Greentown road about 14 miles east of its junction with Ohio 43 at 12:35 p.m. Sunday.

L. P. Crew of Massillon was engineer of the train.

The auto struck the left side of the Nickel Plate Road locomotive which was traveling southeastward.

A passenger in the car, Mrs. Nora M. Allen, 31, of RD 2, Middlebranch, is reported in good condition at Canton Aultman Hospital, with rib fractures and multiple abrasions.

Rev. Clark and the couple's son, Tom, 5, and daughter, Kim, 3, were treated at Canton Mercy Hospital and released.

The group was returning from Hartsville where Rev. Clark is pastor of the Hartsville Church of Christ.

Rev. Clark reported visibility was poor due to the heavy rain. Mr. Crew said the bell on the train was ringing, both lights were on and that he had blown the whistle. When he saw the car was not going to stop, he threw the train into emergency.

Patrolmen from the Massillon State Patrol barracks reported no arrest was made.

Talks Are Set To Start Today In Washington

Industry's Solid Front Is Broken For First Time

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Kaiser Steel Corp. today broke away from industry-wide negotiations in the 104-day steel strike and announced it would bargain separately with the United Steelworkers Union.

Edgar F. Kaiser, board chairman, made the announcement in Washington only hours after the industry had announced that Kaiser had reached a separate agreement with the union.

Union negotiators were scheduled to meet separately today with 95 other strike-idled steel firms.

The announcement that Kaiser, the nation's 12th largest steel producer, had reached agreement with the union was signed by the 11 other major steel firms. It did not say, however, that the agreement had been signed. Kaiser had been a member of the 12 steel firms bargaining as a unit.

By itself, Kaiser's statement did not deny that Kaiser had reached agreement, but instead explained why he had decided to bargain separately.

Later, Norman Nicholson, assistant to Kaiser, agreed to clarify the situation further. He denied that any agreement had been reached and added that negotiations would begin in Washington today.

Others of the industry said Kaiser's bolt from the ranks would not alter their position to resist what they called an inflationary wage increase.

Kaiser, which employs 10,615 of the half-million United Steelworkers, produces nearly 1,500,000 ingot tons of steel a year—two percent of the national output.

"We believe the decision to bargain separately with the union is the only responsible step we can take in the face of mounting national emergency caused by this 104-day strike," Kaiser said in his statement.

"Several days ago," he continued, "we advised the industry members that we would stand with the industry until 6 p.m. October 25 and if we were not convinced at that time that a settlement was near we would start separate negotiations."

The surprise move came as the big producers, who have been coordinating negotiations efforts, were reported today to make new money concessions to settle the strike. Kaiser had been included in the coordinating group.

All of the peace efforts are going on against a background realization that a Taft-Hartley injunction—presently inactive because of a union appeal—could go into effect anytime and end the strike.

Ryan Says Ike May Cancel Moscow Trip

CLEVELAND (AP)—There is a faint possibility that President Eisenhower might cancel his trip to Moscow, William L. Ryan, Associated Press news analyst, said here Sunday.

"If he does cancel, it will mean a real hard freeze in the Cold War," the veteran correspondent told about 50 newspaper editors at the closing luncheon of the fall meeting of the Associated Press Society of Ohio.

Ryan said he had a feeling that the President disliked the idea of going to Russia. He added the advantages of Eisenhower's visit would not be comparable to those gained by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev in his tour of the United States.

Communist propaganda gains achieved by Khrushchev's visit may be strengthened by the President's planned visit to Russia, he said.

Ryan, who covered Khrushchev's tour of this country, said the premier's visit solidified his position at home and abroad as a man of peace.

The premier's disarmament plan, he continued, gives Russia the opportunity to mark time and if it fails the Reds will claim disarmament isn't possible as long as capitalism exists.

Worthless Money Is Kept In Room At U.S. Treasury

WASHINGTON (AP)—Locked behind stout steel doors in a small room at the U.S. Treasury is five million dollars in paper money—all worthless.

This is the "funny money room" of the counterfeit section of the Secret Service.

It probably is the only place in the country where you can say something is as phony as a $3 bill and be literally correct.

In a locked file in this room are samples of every counterfeit currency ever uncovered by Secret Service, which safeguards the integrity of the nation's money.

The samples include a number of $3 bills—counterfeits of currency issued by state banks before the Civil War.

In vaults lining one wall are millions of dollars of bogus bills seized by the Secret Service in recent years.

The counterfeit section vaults also hold bogus or altered coins. Few people bother to counterfeit small change but many try to convert pennies into dimes. The object is to make the pennies usable in vending machines or pay telephones.

Whenever a coin is altered, it ceases to be money. It is then worth only the value of the metal it contains.

Ex-Convict Is Booked In Tot's Death

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—"Why did you kill my baby?" Harriet Graham shrieked the question at her husband, Darrell Graham, who led detectives Saturday night to the spot where he said he had buried his wife's 18-month-old daughter by a previous marriage.

"I didn't kill her," said Graham, 27, an ex-convict, not looking at his bride of one week. "She just sort of died."

Mrs. Graham, 26, a cocktail waitress, broke into sobs as Graham told Santa Monica police Sunday that he took the girl for a ride—to stop her crying—and that "while we were driving she must have choked, or had a heart attack or something."

Graham admitted burying the child in the Hollywood hills, but denied harming her. Police booked him on suspicion of murder. They said the child died of a broken neck.

Motherwell Case Opens In California

DOWNIEVILLE, Calif. (AP)—The complicated legal case involving Larry Lord Motherwell, 43, and the elderly Washington, D.C., widow he is accused of killing opened today with a motor trip over a high Sierra pass.

Along the 35-mile route to Sierra, a caravan carrying Motherwell, his attorney John T. Reges and Dist. Atty. Gordon I. Smith, passed the secluded spot where the remains of Pearl Putney, 72, were found last Aug. 16, covered with branches and leaves.

The men went to the home of Justice of the Peace Alden Johnson at Sierra, just a wide spot in the road, for action on a preliminary hearing.

Smith originally requested the preliminary hearing but changed his mind and took the case directly to the Sierra County grand jury.

Motherwell claims he is innocent and that he left Mrs. Putney in Las Vegas, Nev.

Eighteen witnesses were summoned to tell the 19 jurors what they know of Motherwell's and Mrs. Putney's cross-country trip—a junket that started from Washington in June 1958 and took the pair to Florida before heading West. Mrs. Putney left the capital with $50,000 in cash and securities, none of which has been recovered.

The last time Mrs. Putney was seen alive was Aug. 1958, just a year and a day before her bones were found by a vacationer. She and Motherwell were last seen at a motel in Marysville, 75 miles down country from here.

Motherwell, arrested Aug. 25 in Atlanta, Ga., has spent six weeks in the county jail here.

Wood Paneling Big Favorite For Year-Round Rear Porch

The old front porch is going the way of the old gray mare.

Nowadays the porch is usually at the back of the house. It's closed in for year-round living, and it's likely to be called the sun room or even a family room.

The old-fashioned front porch fell a victim to the growing interest in outdoor living activities. With the emphasis on doing and informality rather than sitting and rocking, there was a greater need for space and for privacy than could be found in the front of the house.

The porch gave way to the patio

Install Oak Flooring at Right Time

Installation of the oak finish flooring should be the last construction operation in a house. All plumbing, electrical wiring, plastering and painting should be completed before the finish floor is begun. Only the final interior trim work should remain.

The purpose of this procedure is to avoid use of the finish flooring as a working surface by the building mechanics. That is an important point for you to check house. Make certain the contractor does not lay your oak floors prematurely. When installed too soon, they are likely to receive scratches and other marks of disfigurement.

The last operation before actual installation of the oak finish flooring should be the application of a good quality asphalt coated building paper over the subflooring. This will protect the finish floor and the interior of the home from dust and moisture which must seep through the floor seams. In the area directly over your heating plant it is advisable to use double weight building paper or standard insulation board. The purpose of this precaution is to protect the finish floor from excessive heat which might cause the boards to shrink.

at the rear of the house. Once the patio was built, the next step was usually a roof of some sort, then screens to keep out the insect pests, and finally a completely enclosed room with heat providing a place to relax no matter what the weather is like outdoors.

An ideal material for this type of room is paneling from the western pine region. The cheerful woods accept any type of finish—stain, paint, varnish, or lacquer—for a blending both with the outdoors and the other rooms of the house.

At the same time the paneling provides a feeling of coolness in warm weather and a warmth against the chillier days.

Picture window units, while window walls, and shutters help to provide the best view of the outside and maximum ventilation while giving complete protection against the weather.

The fans for these windows are usually made of ponderosa pine, one of the popular species of the western pine region.

For complementing the wood work around the windows, paneling in any of the 10 species of the region is suitable. Each species has its characteristic grain, color, and knot pattern.

In the natural state, they range from the flat white of white fir and the bright white of Engelmann spruce through the pale straw of ponderosa pine to the darker woods such as larch, incense cedar, and inland red cedar. Other light species are Idaho white pine, sugar pine, and lodgepole pine. Douglas fir is intermediate in color.

There has been a growing popularity in finishes that impart a distinct color and still let the grain and knot pattern show through. One method is through the brush-on-wipe-off technique.

This type of finish may be achieved through home-made mixtures of stains and pigments or through some of the fine ready-made products that are available commercially.

The Western Pine Association has developed 36 original recipes for these rush-on-wipe-off finishes which are strikingly different. They may be obtained in a series of six finishing folders dealing with the various rooms of the house.

Conceal Furnace With Louver Doors

Problem for many a homeowner today:

What do you do with the furnace when you build a playroom in the basement?

Answer: Hide it behind two louver doors installed French-style. Louver doors are ideal when used this way because:

1. The louvers let heat from the furnace into the playroom as well as permit air to reach the heating unit.
2. They open wide for ready servicing.
3. Louver doors are acceptable for any decor, from traditional to contemporary.
4. They give the room an interesting background that avoids the dull, empty look of a blank wall.

Louver doors of ponderosa pine are available from building material dealers in sizes and styles for all needs. The clear, smooth wood can be stained or painted with equal ease.

ECONOMY MODEL: This is perfect for an older couple that wants a home requiring little upkeep, or a young couple wanting a home that can be expanded as space needs grow. ## Luxury Houses Can Be Built Without Luxury Price Tags

How do you build a development of split-level and ranch-style homes on wooded one-acre sites, apply quickly and surely by a qualified roofer, saving time on the job.

The most outstanding feature of the development is electric heating. This is made possible even in New England's long, cold winters by thick mineral wool—6 inches thick in the ceiling, 4 inches thick in walls and 2 inches thick in floors—plus a special electric rate by Connecticut Light and Power Co.

Tarinelli says the houses can be heated for about $250 per year, a cost comparable with other types of fuel. In addition, the thick insulation makes it possible for air conditioning to be installed and operated at a low rate.

Also important to heating economy, according to the builder, are windows of ponderosa pine used throughout the houses. These wood windows, mostly double-hung and awning styles, save heat because wood is a natural insulating material.

Fall Is Here -- Time to Face Realities About Your House

Fall is the time to face realities about your home, if boredom has set in. The man of the house should have given up the idea of buying a barn and turning it into a ranch house, and the cooperative lady of the house should have revised her ideas about turning a ranch house into a barn.

Summer in its bucolic loveliness does strange things to the sanest homemakers.

Instead of seeking the rainbow in rural pastoral scenes, it's a good time to improve that place where you hang your Home Sweet Home sign, a place that was probably chosen for practical reasons, with or without woods, fields, lawns or groves.

A house may be refurbished in many ways to add zest to a dwelling.

A new entrance can liven up a dreary or badly planned spot.

An unusual window can change a facade from a leering pumpkin face of windows to an enchanted cottage approach.

Ornamental iron, one of the traditional marks of luxurious home in the South is now available in standardized sizes with all the beauty of the costly made-to-order ironwork from old plantations. These may be installed easily by the home handyman because designs come in complete ensembles with column, bracket, valance and railing ornament. The ensemble gives a custom finish look to the house.

Small entranceways can be enhanced by corner columns. A carport is an ideal place to put iron. Patios and terraces also may be improved by it.

Cast iron and wrought iron columns are available in curved patterns, curly oak design, the popular grape or fleur de lis patterns. There are other patterns—primrose, scroll and leaf, medalion, double heart, half moon.

The columns are adjustable in height ranging from 6 feet 9 inches to 8 feet. Railings are easily assembled from 6 and 10 foot lengths.

This is a good time, too, for plantings of grass seed and bulbs, for transplanting trees and for general landscaping. Indoors there perhaps is weatherstripping and putting to be done, and other tasks to improve the old homestead—painting, papering and renovation of furnishings.

Here's The Answer

QUESTION: I am making a place in my basement for a home workshop and want to buy a good all-around power tool. Which is best?

ANSWER: If you are talking about a single power tool of the non-portable variety, then most persons would agree that a table saw probably would fill the bill. But even though a table saw can perform a large percentage of the jobs required, it has some limitations. For instance, if you intend to do a lot of wood-turning, then a lathe would be a better choice. And if you planned on projects involving curved work, then a jigsaw or bandsaw would be the answer.

It might be that when you mention an all-around power tool, you mean one of the combination machines, which incorporate several different kinds of power tools. In that event, look for a machine of good quality in which the tool you expect to use most often is the main component.

The County Home Bonds

A $939.00 bond issue for a new County Home will be among the questions to be decided by Columbiana County residents when they go to the polls Nov. 3.

There is no doubt as to the need for a new home. We have inspected the present facilities—as have others—and have observed firsthand the many deplorable conditions that exist.

An attic dormitory where mentally unstable men are locked in at night; a dank basement corridor where patients watch a television set propped up on rough boxes; crude toilets; sagging floors; steep and narrow stairways—that is home for 123 aged residents of the county.

These are some of the major eyesores. There are many, many lesser ones.

And over all hangs the dread threat of fire. Should flames break out, the tragic loss of lives would be shocking, barring a miracle.

THE CONDITION should not be considered a reflection on the present superintendent at the Home, his staff or the county commissioners. It's a case of the physical structure falling apart at the seams after a lifetime of service.

The T-shaped main building dates back to shortly after the Civil War and the mental building has been in use for more than 90 years. The hospital is more modern, being about 25 years old, but in need of repairs. The Home's physical properties have deteriorated to the point where it doesn't make much sense economically to keep pouring money into the operation in return for all that can be realized.

Health authorities have recommended immediate corrections of certain hazards at the Home, adding "it is impossible to make specific recommendations since other conditions are mainly beyond repair." Building inspectors have ordered plumbing improvements, already granting two extensions on the deadline for the work.

We re-emphasize, there is need for a new home.

HOWEVER, when nearly a million dollars of the taxpayers' money is involved—and there will be an additional levy necessary for proper maintenance—it isn't merely a matter of a "yes" or "no" vote. Instead, it's a matter of trying to make certain that the best possible use is made of the funds that would be realized from the bond issue.

This was brought into focus sharply during a recent exploratory meeting between county officials and civic leaders from various communities.

One of the questions in our mind—and in the minds of others—is whether the present plans for a 150-bed home would prove adequate. This leads to another question: Could not some of the services provided under the proposed plans be revised in the interest of more bed space?

As pointed out, the commissioners are well aware of the need for comprehensive planning on the project. They have promised to explore every possible avenue and consider every possible need for the aged before arriving at any final plans for the home.

There is sufficient time for proper planning since, even should the bond issue be approved, it would be some time before actual construction could begin.

But there's no use planning further if there's no money to carry out the plans. Thus, the bond issue comes first.

THE CHOICE that faces the voters is whether to keep putting out money for mandatory improvements and repairs and still have an inadequate and costly home for the aged or whether to invest a sizable sum in a new home which looms as a sound solution to a problem that will become more complex and more pressing yearly.

The cost of the new home, under present figures presented by the commissioners, would amount to about $1.44 a year to the average taxpayer, over a period of 23 years.

Firm in the belief that a new home is the most sensible answer to the problem and confident that the commissioners will keep their promise to see to it that the money will be used to the best possible advantage, The News recommends passage of the bond issue on Nov. 3.

No Popular Demand So Far

A revealing comment about Gov. Nelson Rockefeller's availability for a presidential nomination has been made by James Reston of The New York Times after watching the attractive New Yorker on the political stump in Chicago.

"There is little evidence here," observed Reston in Chicago, "that the party as a whole has really put its mind to the Nixon-Rockefeller issue."

Reston then declared that the New York governor had his work cut out for him among Republican party insiders, who had no reason to think the party's nomination should be kept from the vice president. If the New Yorker tried to build a boom for himself among the people, because he still had much to learn about the art of stumping, he bobbed important details, such as sounding the "s" in the last syllable of Illinois and ignoring the farm problem.

THE IMPORTANT thing about the presumption that Vice President Nixon will be challenged by Gov. Rockefeller to prove he has and can keep the inside track in the run for the 1960 nomination is the fact it is causing no excitement.

Whatever effort has been made so far in the New Yorker's behalf has not been enough to attract notice. Even the increase in Mr. Nixon's rate of speechmaking has not made the impression he is conscious of being in a contest for public favor, or even that he is stepping up his efforts to win favor among the professionals and full-time volunteers who dominate party conventions.

This is in contrast to the elbowing and footwork going on among Democratic hopefuls and wishfuls. No one conscious of politics can be unconscious of the jockeying for position among so many eager aspirants for Democratic favor.

VICE PRESIDENT NIXON'S inside track belongs to him by right of service and seniority. He has not had to elbow anyone aside to get it, and therefore it is natural to believe he should not have to use his elbows to keep it. This is likely to be Gov. Rockefeller's toughest problem if he tries to move into the same position.

The report by The Times that the governor found no significant interest in what he must do if he aims to get anywhere against Nixon shows him where he stands.

That is what he wanted to find out. There is no strident demand for a knock-down-and-drag-out fight over the Republican presidential nomination in 1960. It doesn't guarantee there won't be one. But there is no demand for one.

You have a choice: mind your own business, or undermine it.

Once Over

Couple chosen as ideal mates by Univac machine have been married one year and are still happy. This cancels out the right to sue a machine. Push-button romance is here and it's possible to find ideal husband and wife through levers, gears and electric impulses.

Shirley Saunders and Bob Kardell, the happy couple, haven't had any trouble so far. But wait until they have their first domestic battle and she pipes, "You and your blankety-blank mechanical tricks!"

Or the night he comes home to a burned, cold diner and shouts, "Nobody can ever tell me an electronics brain can't go wrong! The machinery JAMMED!"

The couple put their characteristics, hobbies, likes, dislikes, etc., into the machine on a TV show and have had no reason to claim it was a "fix."

We know a case, however, where a boy went to Univac for a wife and got a girl who says she wasn't even playing.

There is a report of a gal who pushed all the buttons on the machine and got a cold drink, a chocolate bar and a repairman who happened to be making adjustments on the apparatus.

MACHINE ACCURACY can be a help but in most cases people who seek mates that way are depending on sure things, warranties and certificates of infallibility instead of music, moonlight, roses and heartbeats. It takes the romance out of courtship and sidetracks dimples, hair-dos, dance techniques, money, personality, smiles and the spirit of adventure.

Where would the great love songs and poems be if all through the ages Univac had been around substituting gears, slots, and assorted gadgetry for the dimly lit parlor, the vacation—resort porch and "come enchanted evening"?

Can you imagine the romantic planter in "South Pacific" singing it "Some mechanical evening, you will see a stranger across a crowded TV set?"

We wish years of happiness to the Univac "Mr. and Mrs." But may the day never come when wedding marches are selected by juke boxes, the bride given away by a group of top engineers and the honeymoon spent in Massachusetts Tech.

A LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE has asked lawmakers to ban auto drivers who take sedatives, tranquilizers, etc.

Mortimer Topblower is indignant and declares tranquilizers are a "must" in modern traffic and thinks the auto makers should include them with the equipment. "Anybody who can make 10 blocks in today's traffic without a tranquilizer must hit himself on the head with a hammer for composure instead," he says. "I think conditions have reached such a point of heedless, reckless driving that a license should include a pledge that the applicant carry sedatives."

Kennan Is Symbol of Dilemma

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — George F. Kennan would be just another ex-diplomat, lost in reverie, except that more than anyone he symbolizes in an ironic and dramatic way the American dilemma in dealing with the Soviet Union.

Twelve years ago he fathered an idea which has been American policy ever since: Prevent Soviet expansion by ringing her with military bases and alliances. This was the so-called containment policy.

It was followed rigidly by both the Truman and Eisenhower administrations, without basic change. And now this rigidity irks Kennan who seems to be shying away from his brainchild and is calling for fresh thinking.

Where once Kennan was for stiff-arming the Soviets absolutely, now he is for making concessions to them in order to get concessions. The American dilemma simply comes down to this: Is this the time for a change?

The world was different when

Kennan had his idea in 1947, or, rather, the relative notions of the United States and the Soviet Union were different.

Then the United States had a monopoly on the atom bomb and was soon to have the hydrogen bomb. The Soviet Union had neither. The Soviets then were even considered backward. Kennan even said at the time that the Soviet Union, in relation to the West, was weak.

The story is far different now. The Soviets have both the atomic and hydrogen bombs. It may be ahead of this country in missiles to deliver them. It is definitely years ahead of the United States in space development.

It has made astonishing progress in science, education, industry. It can no longer be considered weak. What did Kennan hope to accomplish with his plan?

By holding the Soviets tight, he thought, weaknesses might show up internally or changes for the better might occur. In one sense, changes for the better have occurred.

Stalin died within those 12 years. His successor, Premier Nikita Khrushchev, has relaxed controls a bit in the Soviet Union, has called for peaceful co-existence, but at the same time made it plain the Soviet Union is conscious of its power.

So—while the United States 12 years ago was able to put pressure on the Soviet Union with impunity and without fear of disaster, this is no longer true. Moscow now has the power to apply pressure and make the Allies back up, as it showed by deliberately creating the Berlin crisis.

As he watched the changes occur, Kennan began to talk in a new way: of making a deal with the Kremlin so both sides could pull back their troops in Europe; of neutralizing Germany; of abolishing all nuclear weapons.

In short, he says, we are no longer strong enough to get our way without compromising with the Soviet Union.

He accuses the Eisenhower administration, which has acted as stiffly toward the Soviets as the Truman administration, of being "stilted, cramped, and inflexible" in its thinking.

He was a prophet once. Is he still one? To follow his thinking now would require changes in American policy as profound as those set in motion to carry out his containment idea.

For example: Putting the containment policy into operation—the military bases and alliances—meant this country broke with its past, ended its isolation, and got up to its neck in the affairs of the rest of the world.

The country as a whole is forever uneasy about relations with the Soviets, wants some solutions, but is wary and hesitant about change.

Just because it is, the Soviets under Khrushchev have been able to take the initiative not only in dealing with the United States but in Communist relations with the rest of the world.

Kennan's old boss, former Secretary of State Dean Acheson, was and is for the status quo, as was his successor, the late Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

R. Max Gard,

County Commissioner.

Setback for Morality

By DAVID LAWRENCE

26 Nations Blast Cause of Idealism

It was a setback for moral force and the cause of idealism in the world when Great Britain, France, Belgium and 23 other members of the United Nations formally abstained from voting on the resolution which, in effect, condemned the Communist regime by China for its aggressions against the fundamental human rights of the people of Tibet.

The resolution itself was passed by a vote of 45-9 and it is to the everlasting credit of the United States and most of the Latin American countries that a majority was obtained. But the victory for freedom and humanitarianism was clouded by the abstentions in the voting.

Naturally, the Soviet bloc furnished the nine votes in opposition but the reasons given by some of those governments which didn't vote at all were hardly different from the line of argument offered by the Communist group in the U.N.

The abstaining countries took refuge in a provision of the United Nations Charter which says that "nothing contained in the present charter shall authorize the United Nations to intervene in matters which are essentially within the domestic jurisdiction of any state."

THE RESOLUTION itself did not ask the United Nations to intervene or to take any action against the Chinese Communist regime. Indeed, it did not even mention Red China, though it was obviously directed against the Peking regime. It merely took cognizance of reports of what has been happening in Tibet and called "for respect for the fundamental human rights of the Tibetan people and for their distinctive cultural and religious life."

Thus, it was only the expression of an opinion by the United Nations General Assembly, which is the forum to which all oppressed peoples everywhere look for moral support.

After the Chinese Communists invaded Tibet in 1950, the Peking government made an agreement with the Tibetans which provided for a certain measure of self-government and for the protection of their religious freedom under the Dalai Lama. Even, however, in those cases where nations are not self-governing, the Charter of the United Nations does provide for a certain type of action which was in line with the resolution passed by the U.N. last week.

"Members of the United Nations which have or assume responsibilities for the administration of territories whose peoples have not yet attained a full measure of self-government recognize the principle that the interests of the inhabitants of these territories are paramount and accept as a sacred trust the obligation to promote to the utmost, within the system of international peace and security established by the present charter, the well-being of the inhabitants of these territories and, to this end, to ensure, with due respect for the culture of the peoples concerned, their political, economic, social and educational advancement, their just treatment and their protection against abuses."

THE RECORD of the Peking government in Tibet is characterized by cruel treatment of the Tibetan people. Not only has there been a brazen interference with the rights of the Tibetan citizens to choose their own spiritual leaders and their own head of government but barbarisms practiced by the invading troops include wholesale destruction of religious shrines and the killing of priests as well as thousands of other men, women and children.

Has not the Red China government, which seeks admission to the United Nations, shown itself — by flagrant violation of the principle set forth in Article 73 — ineligible for membership in the U.N.? Isn't the resolution which was adopted on Wednesday an added barrier to admission of Red China to the U.N., along with the resolution adopted in February 1951 condemning Red China's aggression in Korea?

An examination of the excuses given for abstention from voting on this week's resolution in the U.N. makes it apparent that there are governments like Great Britain, France and Belgium, for instance, which have colonies, that fear the U.N. some day may be asked to pass on the quality of their own rule in various territories where partial self-government has been granted.

But no government should really expect the support of the moral force of the world anyway if it is ever guilty of maltreatment of helpless peoples.

The precedent that might have been created for Great Britain, France, Belgium and some of the other countries which abstained from voting is, therefore, more theoretical than real.

It is to the credit of Ireland and Malaya that they led the fight for the adoption of the resolution in the U.N.

They are among the smaller countries which never could have gotten their independence except by laying their case before the forum of world opinion.

It is a backward step that the 26 nations took when they failed to express themselves by a formal vote on a resolution which meant so much to freedom and liberty for the oppressed peoples in many areas of the world.

Canada Tied to U.S.

By ERIC DOWNTON

VICTORIA, B.C.

"Can a nation like ours, absolutely dependent upon its neighbor for defense, for markets and for capital, long endure?"

This is the question asked by one of Canada's most widely read historians and political analysts, Bruce Hutchison.

An author of several books on Canada, a columnist and newspaper editor, he has been speaking out on Canada's future in a series of West Coast seminars.

Hutchison finds Americans generally unaware of the great concern Canadians feel because of their increasing dependence on the United States.

BUT HE WARNS that Canadians themselves must make up their minds about what kind of future they want for their country.

"We cannot communicate our fundamental aims and policies to the United States until we are much clearer about them in our own minds." He adds that never before in history has Canada had such vague and undirected policies as it does today.

Hutchison does not suggest that the United States has any thought-out, sinister design for swallowing Canada economically. Ironically, he asks: "Has any nation a better neighbor?"

Nevertheless, he warns that Canada will lose much of its identity if the country continues to be absorbed so rapidly by the huge complex of U.S. economic and defense interests.

Although Hutchison is an active worker for the opposition liberal party, many Conservatives leaders, including Prime Minister John Diefenbaker, agree with him.

In Detroit recently, Diefenbaker asked the members of the economic club to imagine the position between the United States and Canada reversed.

"You might then reflect what your reaction would be if about half of your manufacturing industry and four-fifths of your petroleum industry and about two-thirds of your mining and smelting industries were owned or controlled outside your country."

THE CANADIAN leader added: "In the current intensified and broadened competition for international markets, Canadians can scarcely regard with equanimity United States' trade office policies, which may have the appearance of sharpening domestic export efforts while seeming to restrain or failing to encourage Canadian branch plants' participation."

One thing is conspicuously missing from statements of both Prime Minister Diefenbaker and Author Hutchison. Neither has suggested a concrete program which will be both satisfactory to Canada's national pride and practical for her economic development and regional security.

The Doctor Says

By HAROLD THOMAS HYMAN, M.D.

Fear of Tumors Is Often Ridiculous

The appearance of a tumor or growth—even mention of the words—puts fear in the hearts of most of us.

Quite understandably, we link "tumor" and "growth" with cancer and malignancy. Yet the vast majority of tumors or growths are no threat to life and rarely interfere with health or welfare.

Very few indeed are cancerous or become malignant. These few have given a bad name to the entire community of growths.

Benign tumors are found on the skin and all the mucous surfaces that line body cavities like the nose or the mouth. They occur also in every hidden organ and tissue of the body.

MANY BENIGN tumors, like the strawberry mark that you see on the back of a baby's neck, are with us all of our lives. They pay no more rent than the birds that nest in our trees. They cost us nothing and, if we pay them no mind, they rarely bother us.

Other benign tumors put in an appearance later in life—like the brown spots, warts and moles that dot the skin of older folks. Sometimes these are called liver spots, but they have no more to do with the liver than with any other organ of the body.

Most of these nubbins are of no importance except to our vanity. They remind us that we're not as young or beautiful as we were once.

Some few benign tumors and growths cause trouble, or we think they're causing trouble, which amounts to the same thing.

MAYBE it's an unsightly, hairy mole that spoils the appearance of a pretty girl.

Maybe it's a wart that's in an awkward place so we scratch it and make it bleed when we shave or comb our hair.

Maybe it has a long stem that gets twisted, like an ovarian cyst, and causes pain like an attack of acute appendicitis.

Maybe it begins to bleed, like a wart in the bladder, and produces the alarming symptom of bloody urine.

Maybe, like a simple lump in the breast, it's in a location where malignancy occurs and it has to be taken out for examination under the microscope.

MOST OF THE time, the benign or harmless tumor can be treated according to a principle called "skillful neglect." Your doctor tells you he'll have it out if you want. If you don't vote for an operation he'll advise you to watch it and let him see it again if it gets larger, begins to look angry or bleeds.

But if you're going to worry about it or it does kick up, it's best to have it cut out. It can then be given the third degree by the pathologist. The operation will hardly bother you.

If it does nothing else it will restore your peace of mind.

Greenford picked up eight points in the opening quarter, added a big 24 in the second, six in the third and 14 in the final period. Merlyn Bush and Kurt Gudat each scored two touchdowns for Coach Harry Frankland's charges.

Bush registered on runs of 52 and 20 yards. Gudat hit paydirt from 25 and 20 yards out. Other TD's were scored by Ken Wellendorf, seven-yard run; Dave Lasky, 15-yard run; and Ed Ferren, 30-yard run.

Wellendorf carried over two conversions and Gudat, one.

Goshen Offensive Tops Jackson-Milton 50-26

Goshen Union chalked up its second victory in a row after four defeats with a smashing 50-26 win over Jackson-Milton in a battle of offenses Saturday at Sebring.

The contest was featured by numerous long runs.

Norm Wallace, Lynn Barnett and Jim Anderson each tallied two touchdowns to lead the Goshers in their best offensive effort of the season. Goshen scored in every period and never trailed. They led 6-0 after one quarter, 28-0 at the half and 34-0 after three periods.

Wallace's two markers came on short plunges of one and three yards. Barnett carried up his two touchdowns on passes from Chuck Wilson. One aerial covered 15 yards and the other 35.

Wilson also recorded a third touchdown pass to Anderson. The play covered 45 yards. Anderson's other touchdown came on a 38 yard scamper.

Bjorkman carried the pigskin over the goal from 15 yards out for Goshen's other six-pointers.

Joe Meissner, Anderson, Wilson and McDaniel each accounted for two-point conversions on runs. Anderson wound up as Goshen's leading scorer for the night with 14 points.

Unbeaten Canfield Humbles Crestwood of Mantua 58-14

Coach Bob Winterburn's Canfield Cardinals stunned visiting Crestwood High School of Mantua with three quick first period touchdowns, then coasted to an easy 58-14 victory Saturday.

Flashy halfbacks Jim Albert and Harry McPhee each scored two touchdowns to pace the unbeaten Cardinals to their sixth straight victory of the season. Albert tallied on runs of five and 45 yards. McPhee hit paydirt on a two-yard plunge and a 30-yard gallop.

Other touchdowns were scored by fullback Alcott, two-yard run; Jack Raver, 34-yard pass interception; Ron Randall, 30-yard pass from Bill Arnold; and Ed Rodgers, two-yard plunge.

Crestwood, which has now lost five of six starts this season, scored a touchdown in each of the middle two periods. One came on an eight-yard run and the other on a 10-yard pass play.

Coach Winterburn used 26 players in the game, including 10 backs. The defending Inter-County League champions have yet to be extended by any of their six opponents. They have scored 246 points while limiting all opposition to 50.

It was the sixth consecutive defeat for the Rebels. Beaver Local chalked up its second win against four losses.

The Beavers did all their scoring in the second and fourth quarters. They held a 14-0 halftime lead.

Speedy fullback Jim Shingleton tallied twice on plunges of three and four yards. Sophomore sparkplug Carl Hoppel scooted through the Fairfield-Waterford defenders on a 25-yard touchdown scamper.

Gary Williams concluded the Beavers' scoring when he hauled in a 34-yard pass from Freddy Needs. Bill Dunn accounted for Beaver Local's only successful conversion on a run following the first touchdown.

The only score for the Rebels came in the third quarter on an 11-yard pass from Tom Messenger to Dan Brothers.

Providence Tops Rochester 4-0

By The Associated Press
Thanks to Bruce Gamble's first shutout of the season, the Providence Reds still hold first place in the American Hockey League today but that warwhop from the rear is the Springfield Indians.

Three victories in little more than 48 hours over the weekend carried the Indians to a point where they could have pulled into a tie with Providence for the league lead. The Reds, however, held their two-point edge Sunday night as Gamble turned back 24 chances in a 4-0 victory over Rochester.

Still the Indians are coming Sunday night, they attacked with such consistency that they got off 36 shots at Hershey goalie Bobby Perreault. Bobby stopped 50 but six got through for a 6-1 Springfield triumph. The Indians had started their rush up the standings with a 4-2 victory over Cleveland Friday night and a 5-3 decision over Rochester Saturday.

Providence has 14 points on a 7-2 record to 12 points and a 6-2 mark for Springfield.

It was a week-end split for Hershey, which beat Buffalo 4-1 Saturday night while Cleveland was pasting Quebec 8-1. Quebec's losing streak stretched to five with a 3-2 loss to Buffalo Sunday night.

Leetonia Falls To Poland 41-22

Second Half Spells Defeat For Bears

Leetonia blew a chance to move up a notch in the Tri-County League standings when they fell apart in the second half at Poland Saturday and dropped a 41-22 decision.

Instead of moving into a fifth place tie with Poland, the Bears fell behind Columbiana into seventh place.

Converted fullback Bill Little tallied a touchdown in each of the first two quarters to keep the Bears in the ball game. Quarterback Terry Tilley hit end Bob Gullett and halfback Dave Pirigyi on conversion pitches after each touchdown. Leetonia trailed only 20-16 at halftime.

After scoring eight points in the first period and 12 in the second, the Bulldogs kept up the pace after intermission while Leetonia hit the skids. The Bears didn't score again until the final quarter when co-captain Dave Macry carried over from the 10-yard line.

Poland's six touchdowns were scored by six different players. Dunc Ingraham started the parade with a three-yard plunge.

Ingraham then passed 44 yards to John Talbott, Bob Ludd threw 36 yards to Jim Strock, Jerry McLain ran for seven yards, Ludd plunged from one-yard out and John Allen ended the scoring for the day when he romped over with a 25-yard aerial from Ludd.

Poland is now 3-3 for the season and 3-2 in league play. Leetonia suffered its fourth loss to go with one victory and a tie. The Bears are 1-4 in league play.

Leetonia's battered defense has yielded an average of 29 points per game.

McDonald At Lowellville, Loses 8 to 0

The Lowellville Rockets clung to their Inter-County lead Saturday with a hard fought 8-0 win over McDonald before the largest crowd of the season at Lowellville.

The only touchdown in the bruising battle came in the third quarter when quarterback Tom McCarthy shook loose on a 40-yard touchdown gallop. McCarthy then hit Chuck Schiavello with a pass to cash in the two-point conversion.

Lowellville stands atop the league with a 6-0 record. Defending champion Canfield is also 6-0 but two of their wins came against non-league opponents. The Rockets and Cardinals are not scheduled to meet this year.

Lowellville's rock-like defense proved too tough for McDonald's high-geared offense. Prior to Saturday, McDonald had scored 164 points in four league games. Their only loss was a 40-10 drubbing at the hands of Canfield last week. Lowellville has the best defensive record in the league, yielding only 15 points in six games.

Salem Game Against Boardman Is Thursday

Salem High's football game with Boardman this week will be played on Thursday because of the annual Northeastern Ohio Teachers Association meeting in Cleveland Friday.

The game will get underway at 8 p.m. at Reilly Stadium. The Spartans dropped an 8-0 decision to Hubbard last Friday while Salem was dumping Wellsville 50-0.

Salem and Wellsville reportedly signed a new two-year contract after the game. The old pact expired this year. The loss for Wellsville last Friday was their 16th straight to the Quakers.

Another rivalry which will be renewed next year will be the Salem-Leetonia series. An opening game for the 1960 season between these two clubs was signed several years ago.

In the Friday Wellsville game Salem substitutes scored three touchdowns in a little over seven minutes after entering the game early in the fourth period. They moved 44 yards in two plays for their first score; 36 yards in five plays for the second and 50 yards in four plays for the third.

Salem's leading ground-gainer in the game was halfback Fred Phillips who carried the ball 18 times through the mud for 116 yards. The team's co-captain and best mudder averaged 6.4 yards per carry.

The steady rain washed away several of the yard line markers and caused considerable trouble for the referees when they tried to position the ball. They stepped off one seven and a 14 yard penalty, and in one case placed the ball on the four-yard line for the point after touchdown.

Canadiens Defeat Detroit Icers 2-1

By The Associated Press
Two surprising streaks are over and the National Hockey League seems to have a more normal look today with the big, bad Montreal Canadiens leading the pack and threatening to pull away.

The Canadiens put together a big parlay over the weekend, pulling into a first-place tie with Detroit Saturday by crushing Boston 5-1. Montreal then shoved the Red Wings back to second Sunday night with a 2-1 decision, snapping Detroit's unbeaten string at six.

Meanwhile, the New York Rangers broke a string of seven straight home losses and finally got out of last place.

Goals by Dean Prentice, Red Sullivan and Eddie Shack, combined with Gump Worsley's alert goal-tending, gave the Rangers a 3-1 victory over the hapless Chicago Black Hawks in Sunday night's other game. The Hawks, now solely in the basement, still have a streak going — seven winless games since they won their opener from New York three weeks ago.

Boom Boom Geoffrion was the big man for the Canadiens, rifling home a 60-foot screen shot with 78 seconds left to break a 1-1 tie against Detroit. Don Marshall of Montreal and Jim Morrison of Detroit had scored the earlier goals.

Reserves Top Wellsville

Salem 38-0 Win Is 4th In Row

Salem's Reserves romped to their fourth consecutive win of the season Saturday night under the lights at Reilly Stadium with a 38-0 thumping of the Wellsville Jayvees.

The Quakers scored the first three times they got their hands on the ball. Gary Devan took Wellsville's opening kickoff and raced 80 yards up the middle for a touchdown. Rick Sulea kicked the extra point and Salem had a quick 7-0 lead.

After the Quakers kicked off the Tigers were unable to move the ball and were forced to punt. On the first play from scrimmage Devan uncorked a 45-yard heave to end Duane McClaskey who carried the pigskin into the end zone for a score.

A kick for the extra point was no good.

Wellsville took to the offense once again but sophomore fullback Fred Kaiser of Salem intercepted a flat pass on the Tigers' 15-yard line and waltzed untouched across the goal. This time Sulea's kick was good and the Quakers led 20-0 still early in the first quarter.

Salem emptied its bench and the score remained 20-0 at halftime.

In the second half the passing combination of Devan to McClaskey clicked again for a 30-yard TD. John Delfavero was next to break into the scoring column with a 22-yard dash.

Chuck Hertel climaxed the touchdown parade with a seven-yard scoring jaunt. Hertel had just reentered the game to replace Edling when the 145-pound sophomore twisted his knee.

Coaching the Quakers Saturday were assistants John Baker, Vince Crawford and Mike Guappone. Head Coach Earle Bruce and assistant Blaine Morton were out of town.

Saturday's shutout was the third recorded by the Salem Reserves. East Palestine has been the only team to score on the Jayvees. The Quakers defeated the Bulldogs 12-6. Other victories came over Campbell Memorial 28-0 and Columbiana 26-0.

The Quaker Jayvees will play their next game at 10 a.m. Saturday morning at Reilly Stadium against Boardman.

North Lima Humbled by Springfield

Springfield Local scored in every quarter Saturday to trample host North Lima 26-0.

Jerry Randall, 165-pound left halfback, plowed over for two touchdowns on plunges of one and five yards. Quarterback Jim Allen hit Wally Heck with a ninety-yard TD pass and fullback Roger Myers bucked over from the one for the other score.

The only successful conversion came on a pass from Bob Borkes to Heck.

North Lima's season record is now 2-3-1. Springfield Local won its fourth victory in six games.

All four of Springfield's victories have been shutouts. The only two teams to score on Coach Keith West's rugged eleven were unbeaten Canfield and Lowellville, the two clubs currently atop the Inter-County League standings. Canfield beat Springfield 38-8 and Lowellville edged them 3-0.

22 Take Part In Hunt Club Shoot

The Salem Hunting Club held a shoot at the club range Sunday with 22 members participating.

Chester Bert of Sebring captured first place in the pistol event. He was followed by William Perkins of Youngstown and Bill Robinson of Ravenna.

Robinson came back to take top honors in the 22 cal. rifle off-hand division. Meridith Livingston of Salem was second and John Kessig of Damascus third.

George Stowe of Salem, James Ivan of Salem and O. F. Birkheimer of the Salem Country Club finished in that order in the 22 cal. rifle bench rest.

The monthly traveling trophies went to Mr. and Mrs. George Stowe.

The next shoot will be at the club range Sunday, Nov. 22.

Bruce Denies Any Coaching Offer

Salem High Football Coach Earle Bruce said today that he knows nothing about a job offer in Akron which an out-of-town newspaper mentioned Sunday.

Bruce commented "I don't know anything about an Akron offer. I didn't even know there were any openings there."

Bruce came to Salem from Mansfield in 1956. His teams here have compiled a record of 25 victories and nine defeats. This year's edition is unscored upon in five games against Ohio opposition. A lone defeat came at the hands of Ambridge, Pa., by a score of 14-0.

Salem's head mentor turned down offers to at least two turned Ohio high schools prior to the 1959 season.

Columbiana, Beaver County All-Star Game Set August 6

Game to Alternate

Seniors from Both Counties to Compete

The first annual Columbiana County vs Beaver County, Pa., all-star football game will be held on Aug. 6, 1960 at Patterson field in East Liverpool.

Graduating seniors from all high schools in the two counties will be eligible for the spectacle which is being sponsored by the East Palestine Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Selection of players will be made by the coaches. Graduating seniors from this year's squads will be eligible for the 1960 tilt.

The event has the support of the coaches in both counties.

Beaver County will draw from such schools as Ambridge, Aliquippa, Midland, Beaver Falls, New Brighton, Monaca, Beaver and Rochester.

Columbiana county's drawing potential will include schools in Salem, Lisbon, East Liverpool, Wellsburg, Leetonia, Columbiana, Fairfield-Waterford, Beaver Local, Salsville, East Palestine and United.

Details are still being worked out as to playing sites for future games. The contests will probably alternate between counties, Salem and East Liverpool, which have the two largest stadiums in this county, will probably host all tilts played in Columbiana County.

The East Palestine Jaycees are sponsoring the event with hopes of raising money to help build a new football stadium in that city.

A most valuable player award will be presented to the outstanding player of the game each year. The selection will be made by press and radio men covering the contest.

Purdue Smacks Iowa 14 to 7

Northwest Tops Notre Dame 30-24

By The Associated Press
Northwestern's undefeated Wildcats return home and to Big Ten competition this week with high hopes of taking another step toward their first championship in 23 years.

And in the Big Ten race—where five teams still harbor title hopes—there's no place like home.

Purdue, Wisconsin and Michigan State scored victories on their own grounds Saturday to remain in contention with Northwestern and Illinois.

Purdue smacked Iowa's lame duck champions 14-7. Wisconsin battered Ohio State 12-3 and Michigan State defeated Indiana 14-6. Northwestern kept its perfect record intact with a 30-24 decision over Notre Dame. Illinois dropped a 20-9 intercollegiate decision to Penn State and Michigan retained the Little Brown Jug by clipping Minnesota 14-6.

The home advantage has been especially pronounced in Western Conference play this season. All told, 16 games have been played and the home team has won 11. Northwestern (3-0) is the only contender to win twice on the road. Wisconsin, Purdue, Michigan State and Illinois are all 2-1 and in each case the loss was suffered away from home.

If the home advantage stands up the rest of the season, Purdue and Wisconsin appear headed for trouble. Each must play three of four remaining games on the road. Two of Northwestern's four games are away.

Since no team has ever won the championship with two defeats, Northwestern is the only contender which can afford a loss and still win or finish in a tie.

This week's results could sidetrack one or more hopefuls. Northwestern is home against Indiana, Purdue is at Illinois, Wisconsin at Michigan and Michigan State at Ohio State.

Minnesota and Iowa take on non-conference foes. Kansas State is at Iowa and Vanderbilt at Minnesota.

Either Purdue or Illinois will be eliminated unless they play to a tie. Both Wisconsin and Michigan State will have to win or tie away from home to stay in contention.

San Francisco Dumps Chicago Bears 20-17

By The Associated Press
With sharpshooting Y. A. Tittle doing the bulk of the prospecting, the San Francisco 49ers are digging hard for gold and glory in the National Football League.

Tittle, alias "Bald Eagle," is the brains of the outfit—the guy who maps strategy for sorties into enemy territory. His accurate firing is the main reason the surprising San Francisco crew is tied for the lead in the Western Division.

The 32-year-old quarterback engineered the 49ers victory Sunday passing 46 yards to R. C. Owens with 61 seconds left for the touchdown that beat Chicago's Bears 20-17. The victory gave San Francisco a 4-1 record.

Lane Enters Welterweights

First Bout Is Against Akins

By The Associated Press
Kenny Lane, the perennial lightweight contender from Muskegon, Mich., moves up to the welterweight class Wednesday at Washington to take on ex-champ Virgil Akins.

After losing a tight one to Joe Brown in a lightweight title match last year, Lane ventured into the newly re-established junior welter division. He was beaten on a cut eye in the second round of a bout with Carlos Ortiz, June 12.

Lane took a four-month vacation to let the cuts heal and now is ready to make his move in the 147-pound division. His career record for 63 fights is 56-4-3.

The Michigan southpaw may get a taste of his own medicine from Akins, originally a left-hander who occasionally shifts back to his old style. Akins at his peak was a savage puncher. He knocked out Vince Martinez last year to win the title and then lost it in an uninspired effort against Don Jordan. He failed to recapture the crown from Jordan in an April 24 rematch at St. Louis. His record stands at 50-23-1 for 74 starts.

The 10-round match at the new Capitol Arena will be seen on ABC network television.

Florentino Fernandez, winner of 21 straight, had been knocking out almost every opponent (15 straight) until he met Mexico's Gaspar Ortega, Sept. 11 at Miami Beach. The Cuban beat Ortega, too, but he didn't knock him out.

Fernandez, 23, has the shoulders of a heavyweight. He dropped Ortega twice but couldn't put him away. It was the Cuban's second U.S. victory. He had stopped Stefan Redl in his Garden debut, June 19.

The Fernandez-Ortega rematch will be held at Madison Square Garden Friday night with the customary NBC radio and TV coverage.

Badgers Dump Buckeyes 12-3

Bowling Green Tops Kent State 25-8

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—"Wait 'til next year" looms as an appropriate battle cry for Ohio State rooters today.

The Buckeyes lost a vital win-or-out contest to Wisconsin Saturday and saw their Big Ten title hopes virtually vanish.

The fired-up Badgers, scoring a touchdown, safety and field goal, sloshed their way to a 12-3 triumph in a mud-splattered battle.

It would take a near-miracle for Coach Woody Hayes' team to earn a trip to Pasadena this year. A Big Ten championship has never been won by a team with two setbacks, and Ohio State already has two.

Wisconsin's key victory saw: Ohio State's one-game winning streak abruptly snapped.

The Bucks lost to Wisconsin for the first time since 1946.

A Hayes-coached team lost to the Badgers for the first time.

Hayes himself summed it up this way: "We were beaten by a better ball club. I thought we could get back in the game there in the third quarter. . . but we just didn't capitalize on our breaks. That has been our biggest short coming all season long."

Michigan State is next for the Buckeyes who face the Spartans, Indiana and Iowa in their final home engagements.

Elsewhere on the Ohio scene: undefeated Bowling Green (5-0) basked in the limelight as the Falcons solidified their hold on first place in the Mid-American Conference and grabbed the top rung in the statewide standings.

The Bee-Gees, driving for their first MAC crown since 1956, dumped Kent State, 25-8. At Oxford, Miami upended Ohio University, 24-0, ousting the Bobcats from the unbeaten.

John Carroll, which rolled to its fourth straight, lacing Case Tech, 48-6, is Ohio's only other unbeaten, untied team.

The Mid-American picture may take on a clearer outlook Saturday when Bowling Green clashes with Miami. The winner appears a cinch to go all the way.

Ohio U. figures to get back to winning ways against Western Michigan this week. A loss would eliminate the Bobcats from the race.

Wooster, the Ohio Conference leader, went outside the loop to beat St. Lawrence, 41-20. The Scots are being pressed for the lead by Heidelberg and Otterbein. Heidelberg jumped into contention with a 7-6 win over rugged Muskingum. The Student Princes scored in the final minute of play and Bill Lynch booted the vital extra point.

Otterbein got by Marietta, 16-12, as the losing Pioneers were stopped on the Cardinals' one-yard line in the final minute of play.

Wittenberg handed Capital its second straight conference loss, 27-21, but had to withstand a furious second half rally by the Lutherans. Al White picked up his 11th and 12th touchdowns of the year for the losers.

Bluffton, Mid-Ohio league front-runner, whipped Wilmington, 18-6,

Title Clash Set on Saturday

LSU Dumps Florida 9-0; Ole Miss Tops Arkansas 28-0

By The Associated Press
The national college football championship could be settled Saturday night in Baton Rouge, La., when Louisiana State and Mississippi clash.

To the victor probably will go not only the national title, but the Southeastern Conference crown and the host spot in the Sugar Bowl on New Year's Day.

LSU, the defending champion, is nursing a 17-game winning streak. The Bengals from the bayou, have not permitted a touchdown. The only scoring against them has been two paltry field goals.

Mississippi, No. 4 team in the current Associated Press poll, has been playing second fiddle to LSU for two years now. This is Ole Miss' opportunity to become top dog.

Mississippi's defense is almost as rock-ribbed as Louisiana State's. Just seven points—one touchdown and a conversion by Tulane—have been scored against this club.

LSU warmed up to its task by shutting out Florida, 9-0, last Saturday while Mississippi was whitewashing Arkansas, 23-0.

In Dallas, Texas, the surprise power of the Southwest Conference, could wrap up the title—and the Cotton Bowl spot—by beating Southern Methodist, the team that was supposed to be the league bigwig before the start of the season.

Texas has won six games without defeat this season, and ranks No. 3 in the AP poll behind LSU and Northwestern. The Longhorns turned back Rice, 28-6, Saturday. This is strictly a put-up-or-shut-up task for SMU. A defeat and the Mustangs are just about out of the race.

Northwestern, a 30-24 winner over Notre Dame, gets back into Big Ten action against Indiana. The Wildcats seem to be getting stronger as the season progresses, and now rate heavy favorites to win the title and make the trip to the Rose Bowl.

Some of the other conferences also have begun to take shape. In the Atlantic Coast Conference, Clemson heads the list with a spotless 4-0 record, and appears to be the class of the league.

The Citadel took over first place in the Southern Conference with a 3-0 mark after whipping Furman, 18-14.

In the Big Eight, the hopes of the spear-carriers have just about evaporated. They thought this while Findlay and Ashland, deadlocked for second place, battled to an 8-8 tie.

In other games, Cincinnati topped College of Pacific, 21-14, as time ran out on the losers. COP had the ball on the Bearcats' one-foot line when the game ended.

Quarterback Ed Thomas kicked a 30-yard field goal to provide Xavier with a 3-0 win over Dayton. The Flyers, dropping their fifth straight, blew numerous chances to score and had two touchdowns called back.

Dayton meets Villanova this week, crosstown rivals Xavier and Cincinnati lock horns and Otterbein battles Heidelberg in the feature Ohio Conference contest.

Leetonia School Band Plans for 'Tag Day'

LEETONIA — The Leetonia High School Band members will hold their annual Tag Day Friday.

Canton Man's Relatives to View Body

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich. (AP) — Relatives of Thomas W. Toulson of Canton, Ohio, were reported en route here Sunday night to view a body—apparently that of a slaying victim—on which were found papers with Toulson's name and address.

The dead man, evidently slain about two months ago when his skull was fractured by a blow with a blunt instrument, was found Saturday. Two pheasant hunters came upon the body in a field behind a drive-in cafe in Clinton Twp., Macomb County.

County authorities contacted Canton police for aid but the latter told newsmen they had no information.

At first police thought the body might have been that of Christ Scory, 49, whom they described as a Detroit hoodlum and gambler who disappeared last April. Scory's car was found abandoned about five miles from where the body was found.

Washingtonville Halloween Parade To Be Wednesday

WASHINGTONVILLE — The Volunteer Fire department will sponsor its annual Halloween parade Wednesday at 6:30 p.m.

The parade will form on W. High St. led by the Leetonia High School Band. It will proceed to the Washingtonville School grounds where costumes will be judged. Free doughnuts and cider will be served.

Prizes will be awarded to the following:

Best witch, ghost, cowboy, cowgirl, bum, Disney character, devil, clown, gypsy, skeleton, and miscellaneous.

After the parade and judging, a record hop will be held at the school through the cooperation of school officials.

Father, 5 Children Found Asphyxiated

CHELSEA, Mass. (AP)—A father and five of his six children were found dead in their home Sunday, victims of gas asphyxiation caused by a defective hot water heater.

Police said carbon monoxide fumes apparently filled the house while the father was heating water for the children's Saturday night bath.

A sixth child, 8 weeks old, was being cared for by relatives while the mother, Marguerite, 44, was in a hospital for treatment of varicose veins.

The victims were Frank Espinola, 60, a groundskeeper at Boston's American League baseball park; and Ronald, 14; Nancy, 12; Joseph, 9; Philip, 7, and Kenneth, 5.

PRESIDENT NAMED

LORAIN, Ohio (AP)—Mrs. Velita Kinney of the Mansfield News-Journal was elected president of the Ohio Newspaper Women's Assn. Sunday at the group's 57th annual convention here. Other officers elected were Miss Jean Weaver of the Lorain Journal, vice president; Mrs. Dorothy Asher of the Sandusky Register, secretary; and Miss Martha Brian of the Columbus Dispatch, treasurer.

NO FIRES FORESEEN

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Rains which have soaked the state—and a number of its citizens, including football fans—have done a good job of wetting down foliage, the State Forestry Division says. Forester Robert B. Redett, in charge of the protection section, says no large scale forest fires are expected.

a.m. to noon. The area to be canvassed will include Leetonia, Washingtonville and Franklin Square.

Increased membership of the band has made it necessary to add new instruments and new uniforms. It is hoped that the proceeds from Tag Day will take care of increased band growth, along with the purchase of an Alto Clarinet.

The band has been active in all home football games and has made several trips to other schools. They participated in the Lions Club parade at Lisbon, bonfire rally at the city lot, and took part in the program sponsored by the Civil Defense at the Lisbon Fairgrounds recently. The band will take part in the Halloween parade in Washingtonville Wednesday.

WOMEN'S SOCIETY of Christian Service of the Methodist Church will meet at the home of Mrs. Raymond Leonard, 323 State St., Wednesday evening. Mrs. Ed Gotthardt will be associate hostess.

Mrs. Helen Archer, Mrs. Vernon Walters, Mrs. Elmer Kliner, Mrs. Bea Hisey, and Mrs. Earl Kyser attended the annual inspection of the Rebekah lodge at East Palestine Thursday evening. Mrs. Archer, district representative, was the inspecting officer.

Seven tables of 500 were in play at the card party sponsored by D. Wallace Rebekah Lodge on Thursday evening. Mrs. Carl Varian and John Hutter of Columbiana won high honors. Bernard Straub, Clark McCowan and Bill Grim of Washingtonville received special prizes. The next benefit will be on Oct. 31.

The Sunday School Association of St. Paul's Lutheran Church will meet in the Church Tuesday evening at 8.

Nation's Youngest Governors Disagree

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The country's two youngest governors disagree over Vice President Richard M. Nixon's chances at the presidency.

Oregon's Republican Gov. Mark O. Hatfield, 37, believes voters in his state would choose Nixon if a presidential primary were held now.

He said he felt that both Nixon and New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller "would make outstanding presidents."

But Democratic Gov. J. Howard Edmondson of Oklahoma—who appeared with Hatfield on the television panel "Meet the Press" Sunday said he thought Nixon had shown "a willingness to use tactics that are not high enough...to qualify him for the position of president of the United States."

Edmondson, 34, said he felt his party would find Rockefeller "the most difficult Republican to beat in a presidential race."

U.S. IS BEHIND

NEW YORK (AP)—The United States is behind in the missile and space race, says Sen. Stephen M. Young (D-Ohio), because President Eisenhower is "too obsessed with balancing the budget to keep things moving in the right direction."

And because the President is a former military man, Young declared Sunday on a CBS television program, he has not carried out unification of the armed services, which might end "the maze of confusion in the Pentagon."

Teen-Ager Slays Sister In Argument

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — A studious, lanky teen-ager who told police "I hate everyone" faces further questioning today in the fatal shooting of a sister.

James Vogel, 17, is held for investigation of murder in the slaying of his sister, Gwendolyn, 14. He told police he "got kind of nervous" and shot the girl with a shotgun Saturday night after an argument over which was to sit in an easy chair before the family television set.

Police said the youth fired the shotgun outside his house as officers pursued him later. Mary E. Root, 22, a bystander, was struck in the face by shotgun pellets. She is reported in good condition.

Vogel was captured after exchanging shots with police. An officer suffered minor wounds as he took the shotgun from the youth in a city park.

Velma West's Burial to Be At Marysville

MARYSVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Velma West, whose yen for going places led to her spending most of her life in one place — the Marysville Women's Reformatory — will remain near in death.

She died in the prison hospital Saturday, 31 years after coming here on a second-degree murder conviction in the hammer slaying of her second husband.

She killed him with a claw hammer, she said, as the climax to a final bitter argument over her desire to go to parties and dancing, and his inclination to lead a quieter life.

Burial was arranged for St.

John's Cemetery here today, following a morning requiem mass at Our Lady of Lourdes Roman Catholic Church here.

Mrs. West embraced Catholicism 20 years ago after being recaptured following 40 days of freedom. She said at the time that the escape which gave her those 40 days outside "wasn't worth it."

In ill health with a heart ailment, she spent most of her final year in the prison hospital. Her mother and a brother survive.

Trio Asked to Testify In Loans Case

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A grand jury will hear more about the operations of the State Division of Building and Loan today — if some invitations issued by the county prosecutor are accepted.

Prosecutor Earl W. Allison, who gets the job because the state capital is in Franklin County, says he has invited — not subpoenaed — three former superintendents of the division, and the present superintendent, Andrew C. Putka, to testify today.

They'll be asked to explain division operations, he said, adding that one former official has declined, one has agreed, and one has asked to postpone his appearance until Nov. 10. He declined to identify any.

The grand jury is investigating expenditures from the building and loan fund since 1945. A state auditor's report indicated up to $217,000 may have been spent without vouchers, reportedly from a liquidation fund built up by state fees in handling defunct building and loan operations.

Testimony began Oct. 14. The division is part of the Ohio Department of Commerce.

23 Apalachin Delegates On Trial Today

NEW YORK (AP) — Twenty-three delegates to the Apalachin, N.Y., underworld convention go on trial in federal court today charged with giving evasive answers about the conclave.

The government has charged that the defendants conspired to give federal grand juries and other investigative agencies false information about the nature of the Nov. 14, 1957, meeting at the home of the late Joseph Barbara Sr.

Milton R. Wessel, special assistant to the U.S. attorney general, has marshaled more than 100 witnesses. U.S. Dist. Judge Irving R. Kaufman will preside at the trial, which is expected to take 7 to 14 weeks.

Kaufman has dismissed 90 pre-trial motions by the defense and has made it clear he expects to start selection of a jury today. There are 17 separate groups of defense lawyers.

Sixty-three men attended the Apalachin conclave, which was raided by state police. All the men were released after questioning, but the raid set off intensive investigations by state and federal grand juries.

Wounding of PFC at Ravenna Arsenal Probed

RAVENNA, Ohio (AP) — The wounding of PFC, Alpha W. Raper, 26, with a carbine bullet was under investigation today by a board of officers from the 67th Field Artillery in Cleveland. Raper, a radar operator at Ravenna Arsenal and from Berger, Tex., is in critical condition at Robinson Memorial Hospital. The shooting, tentatively listed as accidental, took place in a barracks Saturday night.

Akron Man Is Held In Wife's Death

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—A 51-year-old rubber worker was held with out charge in the Summit County jail today in the death of his wife, who was beaten and kicked in the yard of their Springfield Twp. home.

Prosecutor John Ballard said he would file a first-degree murder charge against Theodore Cottrell. Sheriff Russell Bird said Cottrell was sitting in the driveway holding his wife, Garnett, 34, when a deputy arrived late Saturday night. Mrs. Cottrell died later in Akron City Hospital.

The sheriff said two of the couple's children — Robindale, 3, and Tommy, 5—slept through the beating, but a third child, Terry, 13, told deputies he saw part of it.

Two girls, 17 and 18 years old, who were with Mrs. Cottrell when she drove into the driveway, also witnessed part of the beating, Ballard said.

Ballard said officers were called by a 20-year-old youth who passed by and saw a man beating a woman in the driveway.

The prosecutor said Cottrell denied beating his wife and explained she was injured when she "fell down several times."

Ballard said both Cottrell and his wife apparently had been drinking.

Fruehauf, Union Ink New Contract

LORAIN, Ohio (AP)—A 32-day strike of 1,500 employees at the Fruehauf Trailer Co.'s Avon Lake plant ended today.

The company recalled 1,200 first and second shift workers and said the remaining 300 would report later in the week after inventory-taking.

An end to the strike was voted by Local 925, Allied Industrial Workers, Sunday. Joe V. Brown, local president, said a two-year contract providing wage increases of eight cents this year and seven cents next year was approved 571-53. The new average hourly rate of workers covered becomes $2.42, Brown said.

The new contract expires Sept. 24, 1961.

In addition to wage gains, it provides an additional or third week of vacation after 12 years of service and an additional $5 of weekly sick and accident benefits which become $40 a week.

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

Victor Riesel

Little Jimmy Hoffa has a treasure map. And Xs mark the spots where his opponents' political fortunes are buried. He keeps it neatly folded in his desk. He consults it when he needs to make a decision. That's when one of the Teamster locals calls for a favor of some kind.

Out comes the map. At a glance Jimmy can tell whether the local voted for or against him at the 1957 Teamster convention. To those who supported him, goes his support and favor.

Hoffa is taking no chances. He is planning a new convention so he can be elected the immovable president.

He is taking no chances, because this new convention is to be one of the most law abiding in the history of dues stamps.

He is deluging his locals and their leaders with long forms and short ones asking if any criminals are on their lists. Hoffa is telling his people to obey the new labor reform law.

JIMMY WANTS to control all the delegates to the convention and he wants all the delegates to match every legal test. That is his new pattern for power. He knows he and his union are attracting more probes today than a TV quiz show.

There are 12 Federal Grand Juries looking into Teamster locals and leaders right now.

The investigators are using every bit of McClellan committee evidence. They're calling on the FBI. They're operating in such centers as New York, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Cleveland, Los Angeles, and Washington, D.C., the Justice Department informs me.

They're preparing new indictments to match the current 25— which include 12 in the past few weeks.

The Teamsters have been hit with everything from contempt (judicial) to tax evasion and extortion. If these men are convicted, some of Hoffa's closest friends, allies and lieutenants — and there are sharp differences — will go up for terms of two to five years.

Far from weakening Hoffa, such prison terms for his aides will strengthen him. That's realpolitik and Jimmy Hoffa is the greatest real politician of all. First, such convictions will give the public the impression that the Teamsters have been cleaned up.

Secondly, there will be a vacuum wherever one of the local chiefs is made a guest of the government.

LOOK AT OHIO, for example. There the iron hand on the wheel is that of Bill Presser. He is president of Cleveland Local 555. He is president of Cleveland Joint Council 41. He is head of the Ohio Teamsters. Every thing rolling through that state, except in the Cincinnati area, needs one of Presser's drivers.

Now he has been indicted by the Federal government for refusing to tell the McClellan committee whether he destroyed his personal records after being subpoenaed. If convicted, he will be replaced by several men approved by Hoffa, of course, and all reporting directly to Jimmy. Not that Presser didn't but he was a power in his own muscled right.

The Human Body... A Powered Machine, Its Function And Care

The framework of the human being is the skeleton, with the spine aiding in the support of the entire body. The delicate internal organs are protected mainly by the framework of the ribs; the bones of shoulders, arms, and legs are efficiently placed to function with ease. The principal working parts are organs: the heart, lungs, kidneys, liver, spleen and others. Since depleted cells of the body are naturally replaced, the body can outwork and outwear any man-made machine.

The motive power of the body is the nerve force. This comes from the "dynamo" in the skull. This nerve force is carried to every part of the body through the innumerable millions of tiny "nerve lines," and the main trunk which carries all these "wires" is the spinal cord. If the progress of this force is blocked by irritation of only a few of the nerves, the portion of the body deprived works imperfectly — or not at all. These parts or organs then cease to function properly and become debilitated.

When the nerve system is working smoothly, the answer is normal health. The doctor of chiropractic, through manipulation and other therapies, treats human ills by restoring this nerve force to the affected part. If the body is to remain healthy, the "main trunk line" — the spinal cord — must allow the nerve force full passage. Care of the body, physical health, must include treatment to allow this smooth flow of nerve energy. As the nerves emerge between the spinal vertebrae, pinching and irritation through pressure is frequent. Chiropractic care can prevent this, or effect recovery when it happens.

agricultural. A great majority of Green township has been named as "agricultural" in the original plan with the intent that this can be re-zoned in the proper classification as it is developed for home sites or for business or industrial establishments.

The plan would be administered by a zoning commission, an appeals board, and the township trustees, as provided under the state law.

"Almost no type of industry or business is prohibited in this plan," Roller points out. "Instead, rules would be set up to govern where they would be located and the type of structures they would use. In other words, it is planning for the future growth of our community."

Other members of the commission which drew up the ordinance are Paul Witmer, Green-Beaver road; Albert Holt of Canfield; James Baxter and Elden Groves of Salem. They represent different sections of the township and a variety of occupations. They were named by the township trustees for the purpose of studying other ordinances and drafting one which would be suitable to Green Township residents.

Theorist Leonid Leontyev explained: "The simple truth is that capitalism is as pregnant with crisis as a cloud is with rain. Whether there is an arms race or not, crises are inevitable while capitalism exists."

But the article said that the end of the arms race, contrary to the "croaking of the arms merchants," would open up broad new prospects for increased international commerce, growing markets and consequently growing employment.

Nobel Prize

1933 Nobel Prize with Erwin Schrodinger of Berlin University.

The discovery by Segre and Chamberlain of the anti-proton was heralded as an important step toward introducing some order into the bewildering micro-world of some 30 odd sub-atomic particles known to scientists today. The two physicists published their findings in the fall of 1955.

The two winners were assisted in their work by Dr. Clyde Weigand and Dr. Thomas Ypsilantis of the California University staff.

Segre was born at Tivoli, Italy, and was a student at the University of Rome of Enrico Fermi, the pioneer nuclear physicist and 1938 Nobel winner. Segre taught at the Rome University and then at the University of Palermo.

In 1938 he was one of a group of prominent Italian scientists who, with Fermi, went into exile to escape fascist rule. Segre has worked at the atomic bomb research center at Los Alamos, New Mex.

Chamberlain was born in San Francisco in 1920. He was educated at Dartmouth College and at the University of Chicago, where he received his doctor's degree in physics in 1949. Since 1948 he has been attached to the university at Berkeley. He also has worked at Las Alamos.

money, and a lot of it, the governor indicated. That is why, he explained, the party's job now is to tell the people of Ohio what the administration has found, and what it proposes to do.

Mayor Calvin Honored

Prior to his address, DiSalle conducted a brief ceremony honoring Mayor E. L. Calvin of Columbiana, who was presented with a trophy which the governor described as representing "the esteem and appreciation of fellow citizens in Columbiana for outstanding civic service."

The governor was introduced by Congressman Wayne L. Hays of Ohio's 18th District.

Probate Judge Louis Tobin was master of ceremonies. He was introduced by Mayor John Todd of Lisbon.

Don R. Gosney of Columbiana, county Democratic chairman, introduced county officials and special guests, including Everett S. Preston, state highway director.

Governor Declines County Home Visit

Governor DiSalle, who had been invited by County Commissioner Frank Wilson of Willsville to make an inspection of the Columbiana County infirmary declined to do so when he visited in the county Saturday.

The governor told The News: "The Home is a local institution under the jurisdiction of local officials. As such it would be an unwarranted intrusion on my part to attempt to interject myself into the situation."

Maurice Connell, the governor's assistant; Miss Mildred Cunningham, the governor's secretary; the various Democratic county officials, the city Democratic chairmen, various union officials, and William McKenna of Lisbon, chief engineer for Division 11 of the State Highway Department.

Further introductions — of city and village candidates — were made by Mrs. Kay Blackburn, the county Democratic chairwoman. The candidates included eight seeking election or re-election to the office of mayor: Dean Cranmer of Salem, James Ciminelli of Leetonia, E. L. Calvin of Columbiana, John Todd of Lisbon, Stanley Fritz of Salineville, Cliff Fultz of Wellsville, Homer Freer of East Palestine and Bert Goodballet of East Liverpool.

Music included two vocal selections by Becky Gosney, 5-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Gosney, and two vocal numbers by Donna Galchick, 11, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Galchick of Salem. They were accompanied by Mrs. Esther Odoran of Salem.

Invocation was led by Rev. Donald Voelm of Grace United Church of Christ and the benediction by Rev. A. A. Anderson of Jerusalem Lutheran Church.

The governor flew in from Columbus by private plane for the party rally and was met at Youngstown Airport by a committee which drove him to Columbiana.

The overflow audience — counted at 567 — spilled into the hallways at Dixon school. The all-purpose room, scene of the banquet, has a capacity of 400, so many guests dined at tables set up in the hallways.

DiSalle, Preston and staff left after the dinner from Youngstown Airport for a Committee of Governors meeting in Chicago to discuss interstate highways.
